HEROES in ACTION

Love in Action Deeds Provide the Platform for Global Change

HEARTS on Fire™ has been cleared for American broadcast by the National Religious Broadcasters Network (NRBTV) with international distribution scheduled upon completion of the USA broadcast. The series comprises of Dignitaries, Nashville Celebrities and Sports Icons uniting together to help the world's most marginalized children. Each of the 13 episodes conveys the passion of our supporters to the armchair viewers, while delivering A Message of Love, Peace and Hope.

On-Air hosts Roger J. Piggott and Shawn Parr (National Radio Host "Shawn Parr's Across the Country") kindle strong dialogue highlighting the need for change and progressive solutions for displaced children. High impact footage filmed from New York City, Nashville, TN, Sevierville, TN, Arrington, TN, Gatlinburg, TN, Laughlin, NV, Scottsdale, AZ, Asheville, NC, Charlotte, NC, and Washington, DC, round out the series.

In the Mission Fields, correspondents visit orphanages, street missions, homeless shelters and transition homes of the displaced and oppressed children. The series is designed to build relationships with the armchair viewers through testimonies in supporting global change. Select humanitarian organizations, are featured throughout our Heroes of Humanity segments.

FIELD CORRESPONDENTS:

Roger and Cheryl Piggott provide powerful location commentary showcasing 'World Changers' as they serve the destitute and downtrodden children in domestic and international locations.

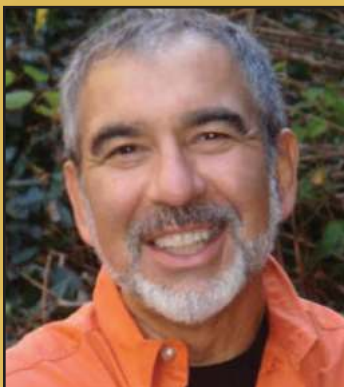

Roger & Cheryl provide insight into the plight of the afflicted and deprived children in the global mission fields with a "Behind the Scenes" look at the issues.

Shawn Parr is no stranger to Country Music Radio. He has been the voice of Dick Clark Productions for the past two decades, and his work includes announcing the American Music Awards, the Golden Globes and the Academy of Country Music Awards. Shawn's national radio show "Across the Country with Shawn Parr" will be interviewing celebrities and dignitaries from the Country Music Cares events; United Nations World Orphans Day Campaign, and the Flame of Peace Tour.

Rebecca Holden is a singer, actress and entertainer. While in New York, a talent agency spotted her and made her a "Breck" girl. Rebecca would appear on magazine covers, do some commercials, and then she headed for Hollywood. Her most famous role was "April Curtis", on Knight Rider, which is in syndication in the U.S. and 92 foreign countries. She is welcomed as an Ambassador of Goodwill to The Stars Foundation.

Ken Abraham is a New York Times best-selling author. Eighteen books on which he has collaborated have appeared on the New York Times best-sellers lists, with three of Ken's works reaching the number one position. Ken is known around the world for interviewing popular high-profile public figures such as former U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft, Senator Bob Dole, Astronaut Buzz Aldrin, Joel Osteen and Randy Travis.

VICTORY MOUNTAIN RETREATS

Television proceeds support the Victory Mountain Retreat Centers in North Carolina, Tennessee & Arizona.

Victory Mountain Retreats™ work closely with our Non-Profit Partners to operate the retreats and serve the children. It is our mandate to help provide funding to sponsor children to go to the camps at Camp Corral, Camp Southern Ground, and Children of our Fallen Heroes.

Victory Mountain Retreats™ are amazing weekends of non-stop fun and excitement in the great outdoors. It's for the children (ages 8 to 15) of our brave Military Service Members. Victory Mountain Retreats™ are a wonderful opportunity for kids to share amazing adventures and doing just about everything you can do enjoying fresh air and nature. The retreats are available to youth at risk and military children with priority given to Children of Wounded, Disabled or Fallen Military Service Members. The centers provide a fun and developmental experience where kids are free to be kids, a part from the day-to-day challenges they face.

Children participate in traditional camp experiences, including; horseback riding, canoeing, swimming, fishing, archery, and water based activities, while learning new skills, building character, and making new friends. Activities for Children of our Fallen or Wounded Heroes include; Zip Lining, Kayaking, Horse Back Riding, Hiking and Parachuting with charity partners, Children of Our Fallen Heroes, TAPS, and Camp Corral.
